

IRMA G

Veteran radio and club DJ Irma G has been a household name in Cape Town radio for 15 years. She has presented and produced for KFM and Good Hop FM, and is currently a host and co-producer on Heart 104.9FM. Her persona expanded nationally when she judged Office Idols in 2005.

Irma has MC'd a wide variety of Events, Functions and Parties. Her first MC job was the Michael Jackson HIStory tour. In 2004 she presented the first of the MTV AIDS awareness concerts held at Green Point Stadium, the "MTV Staying Alive Concert", with such international headlining acts as Usher, Alecia Keys and P Diddy. This was the first time a "local MC" introduced such headliner acts to a global audience.

Other MC highlights include:

- Hosting the Westlife concert held at the Bellville Velodrome in 2005 along with Jeffery Stephens
- MC for 94.5 Kfm's New Year bash with Watershed and Loyiso in 2006
- MC for the second Cliff Richard Concert
- MC for 94.5 Kfm's Night of the stars event, featuring artist like NKD, Jascha Richer (lead singer for Micheal Learns to Rock) and Westlife, along side Benito Vergotine
- introducing onto stage one of SA's premier artists, Johnny Clegg, at the CTICC.

As a DJ, Irma started playing in clubs in 2002, and had a residency with DJ Suga at Vudu Lounge (Heritage Square Cape Town) on a Wednesday Night. Prior to that she also had a residency at Snap, Pepper Street in Town and played at Sutra on a Wednesday along with Suga, being the first two female dj's to host an R&B Hip Hop night in the country. She has played at most clubs in Cape Town like Galaxy, Rhodes House, Chilly on Long, Purgatory, West End and a host of others outside of town, including playing at Moloko in Gauteng. She has also had residencies at Tonic in Long Street and 169 on Long.

Irma was 94.5 Kfm's Red Carpet Reporter for a year, voicing the Community Diary, which covers Cape Town events pertinent to KFM listeners. She also voiced the Celebrity Snap Shot, which covered all Celebs and took the form of E-entertainment, going to air twice a day Monday to Friday. She also co-hosted 6 to 10pm Kfm Sundown, Monday to Friday together with Guy McDonald, and Afternoon Drive with Richard Hardiman.
