

THEM PARTICLES

Them Particles is a unique five-piece band, playing a mixture of country, gypsy, blues and rock music. Formed in 2008, the band is made up of experienced musicians who have played in well-known groups like Benny B Funk, Nude Red, Saucetone and Live Jimi Presley since the 1980s.

Them Particles' striking original songs, written by band leader Dax Butler, display musical depth and thought-provoking & catchy lyrics, and are complemented by a few beautifully interpreted Elvis covers. Tapping into the deep roots of Country music and borrowing from the infectious rhythms and harmonies of Irish music, the band's live offering includes ballads, waltzes and polkas in between the up-tempo skiffles and backbeats.

An honest, fun-filled live act, offering music to which audiences can let go and dance, Them Particles is the perfect choice for informal parties, pub, rock and outdoor events.
