

URSULA STAPELFELDT CHIKANE

One of the most popular presenters in South Africa, Ursula Stapelfeldt Chikane is best known for presenting MTN Gladiators, as well as the glamorous SABC3 magazine program Top Billing. She has also hosted numerous high profile events such as Miss South Africa Pageant, the Presidential Sport Awards, and countless corporate functions, and was a presenter on 5FM for 10 years, and guest presenter on Radio Express in Los Angeles, California.

This Public Relations graduate's first job was a Sports presenter for TopSport on SABC, covering events such as Wimbledon and the build up to the Atlanta Olympics. From there she became the Anchor of two extreme Sport programmes, Mild 2 Wild and Time Out, as well as anchor of the first regional television morning show on the Western Cape's RWC TV on Cape Town Live.

Ursula has traveled the globe for various media assignments, and luxuriates in her travels. "My love of travel has me packed and ready to trot the globe at a moments' notice. I've seen just about every major city on offer and filled seven passports with thrilling memories. How's that for an abundant blessing!"
